Oíche Crimson i Leabharlann Mhullach Íde

Crimson Night in Malahide Library takes place on Wednesday 23rd of October at 6.30pm

We will have an evening dedicated to Irish crime fiction of the past and present with, as our special guests, four Irish authors of crime fiction: Nicola Cassidy, Maria Hoey, Andrea Mara and Jane Ryan .

There will be a Q&A session hosted by Margaret Madden of Bleach House Library (<http://www.bleachouselibrary.ie/>).

This special evening provides you with a unique opportunity to listen to four successful and acclaimed authors discuss the inspiration for their crime novels, elaborate on how social media can hamper or aid plot lines, what provided the tug towards crime fiction and much much more!

Places are limited. If you would like to attend, please book by calling (01) 8704430 / 31 or by emailing malahidelibrary@fingal.ie.

Óráid ar Cumhacht an Anam

A Talk on Soul Power

will take place on Friday 25th of October from 10.30 am – 12.00 noon.

More and more people are looking for authenticity and meaning in life, searching for their own spiritual self.

Soul Power is about becoming, and remaining, aware of your inner spiritual strength.

To apply this in life requires conscious attention and training.

Tolerance, respect and integrity are not “unknown” values, but often we lack the energy to apply these in our daily lives. We have the understanding, but not the strength. By regularly spiritually recharging ourselves through meditation, we will be able to enhance our mental and emotional resilience as we approach challenges and setbacks.

Raja Yoga Meditation involves 8 basic spiritual powers. Each power has its own unique applicability and effect.

This Soul Power Seminar will introduce some of these spiritual powers and help you to understand their specific meaning and the connection between each of them.

If you understand the law of karma (cause and effect of our actions), you will discover that these powers become a valuable companion in the different phases of your life. Places are limited. If you would like to attend, please book by calling (01) 8704430 / 31 or by emailing malahidelibrary@fingal.ie

Clinic Leabhar a Thacaíonn le Uathachas

An Autism Friendly Book Clinic

takes place on Wednesday 30th October from 5.30 – 7.30pm.

Are you a young reader, looking for a book to delve into? Do you need a prescription for an exciting new read? Then pop along to the Book Clinic! Parents and children are invited to drop in for an informal consultation with one of Children's Books Ireland's friendly 'Book Doctors', who are ready to offer the best advice for the young readers in your family.

The Book Clinic says "What do we mean when we say autism friendly? We mean:

- we have made every effort to make the book clinic friendly to children and young people with autism by removing potential stressors and programming in a space with reduced stimuli where possible.
- we have created a social story for the event with information about what happens at the book clinic and about the space where the book clinic will take place so that parents, guardians and children can make an informed choice about whether to attend.

- we endeavour to offer appointments in advance at these clinics, to reduce waiting times for families.

Of course, our book doctors aren't real medical doctors! While they are not experts in autism or literacy, they are children's books experts, with incredible knowledge and heaps of brilliant book recommendations at their fingertips. They will always try to find the very best book for every child, tailored to the child's interests so that they can discover the joy of reading and books, whether they are reading themselves or being read to".

If you wish to visit the Autism Friendly Book Clinic, please ring us at (01) 8704430 / 31 to make an appointment. Each appointment is of 20 minutes duration, appointments are scheduled to run between 5.30 – 7.30pm.
