The Secret Lives of Books with Maeve Devoy

Saturday 12th October 2 – 3.30 pm

For children aged 8 - 12 years

There is a secret that not many children know: a book can come to life when a child falls in love with it, Especially during Children's Book Month, when many books are known for letting their characters loose upon the streets. But once the children have discussed their favourite book at the beginning of the workshop, it never takes long for the secret to be revealed. The children will have to craft the story of how their books came to life, or maybe ate them, or flew away with them. Either way, they will have to position themselves in their imaginary world, where they will finally get to meet their favourite characters, face their worst enemies and decide whether, or not, they want to spend their lives between the lines.

Places are limited so booking is required by return email or phone 8708414

Decluttering workshop with Fiona Hall

15th October 6.30pm

Decluttering - How it can Bring You Happiness

Fiona works with clients in their homes throughout Ireland helping them declutter, clear out the past and start living with less. Whilst the work involves a lot of physical effort, the decluttering process can also be quite cathartic emotionally. This workshop explores the many great benefits to our mental health from clearing out the past, refocusing our lives on what is truly important and provides practical advice and tips on how to successfully declutter.
