

Who operates the service?

Fingal libraries as part of the Fingal Community Response.

Do I have to be a member of Fingal libraries?

No. Library staff can join you up immediately if you wish to avail of the service.

How many items can I borrow?

You can borrow up to 15 items for a loan period of 3 weeks. This period can be extended as required.

How are my books delivered?

The books will be delivered by one of our Council drivers. All drivers will practice social distancing and will wear gloves and masks when delivering items.

What safety precautions are taken?

All books are quantined for 72 hours, after being packed for you by library staff who are operating under current HSE guidelines in relation to social distancing and good Covid 19 hygiene practice.

What types of items can I borrow?

We have a large range of fiction and non-fiction books, audiobooks, large print books and DVDs.

Can I order specific titles/make requests?

Unfortunately, due to restrictions we can't fulfil specific requests. You can however request books by a specific author, on a subject or by type e.g. detective novel or romance for example.

Is there a charge for the service?

No. this is a completely free service.

Are there fines for overdue items?

No. library fines have been abolished. We will also renew books for you as often as you require.

How often can I request a delivery?

You can request a delivery as often you require.