

2026

FINGAL INTEGRATION

North County Area

August & September

FINGAL INTEGRATION INFORMATION

Have you got questions around language, employment, education and health services?

The Local Authority Integration Team (LAIT) are here to help you integrate into Fingal.

Our team host monthly Integration clinics and can help to signpost you on your next steps.

If there is no clinic in your centre you can email us at integration@fingal.ie

WHAT TO FIND IN THIS NEWSLETTER

We aim to highlight what Fingal has to offer! Whether that's events or volunteering opportunities, everything will be free of charge.

The newest copy of our newsletters are also always posted on the Fingal website.

CONNECT IN WITH FINGAL

For the latest information, follow Fingal County Council and Fingal Community Development office on social media:

- @fingalcountycouncil
- @fingalcommunitydev
- @events_in_fingal

WHAT IS FINGAL?

Fingal County Council is the name of the local government for a large area north of Dublin City.

It starts in D15 and covers all the way to Skerries.

Fingal's symbol is a raven. It can be seen across all the different council services.

HAVE SOME QUESTIONS?

Our inbox is always open to questions. If there's something you're unsure on, email us and we'll do our best to help.

Email: Integration@fingal.ie

 Sun's out, fun's out! Discover what's happening across Fingal this summer.

An Cosán Nua

An Cosán Nua is a Depaul service supporting people who have received their status and are ready to move on from Direct Provision. The service provides dedicated Case Management Workers who offer practical support with resettlement and community integration.

 For more information, contact:
cosannua.lmt@depaulcharity.net

How Much of Fingal's 88km Coastline Have You Explored?

From Sutton to Balbriggan, Fingal's stunning 88km coastline offers some of the most scenic walking routes in Ireland. As part of Fingal County Council's ongoing Coastal Way project, a number of sections are already open, including Howth, Portmarnock, Malahide, Donabate, Portrane, Loughshinny, Skerries, and Balbriggan. Whether you're looking for a short stroll or a longer coastal adventure, there's a route waiting to be discovered. Why not explore a new section this summer?
More Info: <https://www.fingal.ie/trips/coastal-walks-across-fingal>

Balbriggan Library Film Club

Looking for a relaxing weekend activity? The Balbriggan Library Film Club takes place on the first Saturday of every month from 2pm to 4pm, bringing people together to enjoy a diverse selection of films and lively discussion.

Thinking of starting a new course this summer?

Take the next step with Dublin College. Whether you want to upskill, change careers, or explore a new interest, our wide range of FET courses can help you achieve your goals. Start your learning journey this summer!

For more info:

<https://mydublincollege.ie/>

Fingal Finds: Skerries Mills

Step back in time at Skerries Mills, home to two historic windmills and a watermill.

This unique heritage attraction offers a fascinating insight into traditional milling and local history.

Getting there: Dublin Bus Route 33 from Lower Abbey Street or Balbriggan, and Route 33A from Dublin Airport.

Fingal Community Facilities Network

Did you know Fingal has a growing network of community facilities supporting local groups, activities, and events? These welcoming spaces help bring communities together, providing opportunities for learning, recreation, social connection, and community engagement across the county. Discover what's available in your area and get involved!

More Info:

<https://fingalcommunityfacilitiesnetwork.ie>

